

MODERN SLAVERY

MODERN SLAVERY: A BRIEFING FOR THE AGRICULTURAL SECTOR (FARMING, CEREAL AND LIVESTOCK)

Modern slavery can take many forms including the trafficking of people¹, forced labour, servitude and slavery. Recent statistics show that 27% of potential victims are trafficked into labour exploitation.² Traffickers and illegal/unlicensed gangmasters target a range of industries including those involved in the agricultural sector.

HOW YOUR INDUSTRY IS AFFECTED

With 13%³ of the 464,000 people employed on agricultural holdings being seasonal or casual workers, farms could find themselves targeted by unscrupulous gangmasters who may be offering a ready supply of labour at knocked down rates.⁴

In 2013, 18% of potential forced labour victims referred to services came from the agriculture and food sector (8% food processing, 10% agriculture). While the numbers coming to light are small (129 victims in 2013), slavery's hidden nature means actual numbers are likely to be much higher.⁵

MAKE-UP OF MODERN SLAVERY VICTIMS IN THE AGRICULTURAL SECTOR

Anyone can become a victim of modern slavery. However, victims of this crime in the agricultural sector are often Eastern European men and women who are promised a job in the UK by traffickers who then force them to work in fields or in food processing factories for little or no money. Through threat, violence or coercion they may be forced to live in squalid accommodation and have their identity documents taken from them.

Signs to spot an illegal gangmaster

- Check to see if they are licensed with the Gangmasters Licensing Authority as a labour provider gla.gov.uk
- Can they provide you with a licence number?
- Are they prepared to give you a Service Level Agreement to provide you with a clear understanding and documentation of who is responsible for all elements of your workers welfare?
- Does it sound like they are over promising? Are they offering workers at a knocked down rate or saying they can fulfil X much productivity in less time than you would reasonably expect?
- Do they carry their 'workers' identification?
- Do they transport their 'workers' en-mass?

FORCED LABOUR VICTIMS

HOW YOUR SECTOR IS AFFECTED

VICTIMS OFTEN COME FROM...

1. Defined in Directive 2011/36/EU as the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or reception of persons, including the exchange or transfer of control over those persons, by means of the threat or use of force or other forms of coercion, of abduction, of fraud, of deception, of the abuse of power or of a position of vulnerability or of the giving or receiving of payments or benefits to achieve the consent of a person having control over another person, for the purpose of exploitation. The consent of a victim of trafficking in human beings to the exploitation, whether intended or actual, shall be irrelevant where any of the means ('') set forth in paragraph 1 has been used or if the victim is a child

SIGNS TO SPOT POTENTIAL VICTIMS

Legal documents

Is the person in possession of their legal documents (passport, identification and their own bank account details) or are these being held by someone else? Victims will often be forced to use false or forged identity documents.

Pay

Are there a group of workers who have their wages paid into the same bank account? This may be sign of the illegal gangmaster collecting all their wages. Are they having wages taken off them for accommodation, food or to repay supposed debt?

Transport

Are a group of workers dropped off or picked up at unusual times of the day, are they all taken to the same property?

Appearance

Does the person look malnourished, unkempt, or appear withdrawn? Are they suffering physical injuries? Do they have few personal possessions and often wear the same clothes? What clothes they do wear may not be suitable for their work.

Behaviour

Is the person withdrawn or appear frightened, unable to answer questions directed at them or speak for themselves and/or an accompanying third party speaks for them? If they do speak, are they inconsistent in the information they provide, including basic facts such as the address where they live? Do they appear under the control/influence of others and rarely interact with colleagues?

Medical care

Does the person have old or serious untreated injuries? Have they delayed seeing a healthcare professional, and are they vague, reluctant or inconsistent in explaining how the injury occurred?

Fear of authorities

Is the person afraid of the authorities (police, immigration, the tax office)? Are they scared of removal or what might happen to their families?

Debt bondage

Does the victim perceive themselves to be in debt to someone else or in a situation of dependence?

ENSURE YOU ARE MAKING THE FOLLOWING CHECKS TO PROTECT WORKERS:

Contract

Check that all staff, including agency workers, have a written contract of employment and that they have not had to pay any direct or indirect fees to obtain work.

Right to work

Make sure staff are legally able to work in the UK. Does the recruitment agency provide assurance that the appropriate checks have been made on the person they are supplying?

Shared occupancy

Check the names and addresses of those working for you. If you have a number of people listing the same address it may indicate high shared occupancy, often a factor for those being exploited.

Statutory rights

Make sure your workers know their statutory rights including sick pay, holiday pay and any other benefits they may be entitled to.

Assess quotes and fees

Use indicative pricing statistics to assess quotations and fees from agencies offering or charging suspiciously low rates.
